SEPARATE WRITING IDENTIFYING BEQUEST OF TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

It is my intention, through this writing, to dispose of after my death, certain items of tangible personal property. I understand that the items provided for in this writing must be only tangible personal property and cannot be money, evidences of indebtedness, documents of title, securities or property used in trade or business. I also understand that this writing may be ineffective unless I have a will which refer to it.

THEREFORE, subject to the above, whether I have a will or not, I direct that upon my death, the following items of tangible personal property not otherwise specifically disposed of by my Will, be disposed of as follows:
